Enjoy Sports, Enjoy Life

Cycling is one of my favorite sports.

It always makes me relaxed and full of energy. It was sunny last Saturday morning. After finishing my schoolwork, I felt a little bit tired. So I went cycling along the road in a forest not far from my home. What great beauty of nature it was when I got close to it! Colorful flowers were smiling at me. Birds were flying here and there in the trees and they never stopped singing. Soft wind touched my face when I rode a little faster. I got relaxed and refreshed at once.

What an enjoyment of cycling it is! I enjoy my life by doing sports.

I Learned How to swim

When I was a child, I always dream to swim in the sea happily. But unfortunately, I was afraid of water when I was born, so each time our family went to picnic on the beach, I could just sit there and watch them joining the swimming or surfing.

One day, my father took me to the swimming pool and started to teach me how to swim. Then he suddenly captured my head into the water, at that time I felt that I was almost dying, but after that I was continuous soaking into the water, I felt better and adapted to the water that I was surrounded. Then, my dad began to teach me the skill of swimming step by step.

Since then, I have learned how to swim. How happy I was! It was really an unforgettable experience.

Doing Housework Makes Me Happy

I think it is very important for us to learn to do chores when we have free time. It is the traditional Chinese virtue. And we can also learn a lot from it.

Last year, my mother asked me to do chores with her before the Spring Festival. I helped my mother wash our clothes, clean the furniture and sweep the floor. We spent a lot of time doing chores. When we finished, we were so tired that we couldn't do anything else. But for me, looking at the house in which everything was clean, I got such a strong satisfaction that I hadn't had before.

This was the first time for me to do so many chores and I found the happiness from it. As a teenager, we are supposed to have a responsibility to share some housework with our parents. In this way, we can know about the value of labor and be thankful for others' hard work. So I hope that every teenager can share some chores from now on!

A Weekend to Remember

It was a bright and sunny weekend. I went fishing with my father.

We started fishing as soon as we arrived at a clear lake. Half an hour passed but we got no fish. I became impatient and wanted to give up.

“Just wait patiently, son. Nothing in the world is easy to get.” My father encouraged me.

I sat patiently to fish with my father. Finally, I got a beautiful big fish. A sense of success and happiness came to me.

I'll remember this weekend forever because I have learnt that being patient is so important to me.

Dear Editor,

I'm a middle school student. Since the "double reduction" policy was released, my life has changed a lot.

I used to do my homework till midnight and have no time for my hobbies. At the same time, I always attended many training courses at weekends. So I had less time for exercise and felt very tired all the time.

However, with the support of the "double reduction" policy, though I go home late, I have more interesting activities I like. I feel very excited when I join in these activities. Moreover, I can have more time to communicate with my parents because I have little homework after school. I have more time to develop my hobbies.

I think the "double reduction" policy is very good. I believe I can study happily and have fun at school because of the "double reduction" policy.

Yours

Life is full of love

Is there a thing full of love buried deeply in your heart? I want to share one with all of you and push myself.

One afternoon, I dragged myself onto the bus to go home. It was the rush hour and the bus was extremely crowded. I was even secretly happy that I had a seat. Just at that moment, a woman got on the bus with a baby in her arms. She was standing right next to me. Just as I was hesitating, our eyes met. I had mixed feelings, embarrassed, worried, nervous... Before I could get up, she said to me with a warm voice "Boy, you must be very tired after the whole day's work. But fighting for your dream is a happy thing. I will get off at the next stop. Sit here and have a good rest."

How kind and understanding she was! What she said made me not only ashamed but moved. It was her love that is pushing me to be a better person!

Dogs are our friends. With them, we won't be alone. However, dogs can do even more than that. They can help children improve their reading skills. ^⑥ A team of Canadian scientists did an experiment with seventeen children from grade one to grade three. They first tested their reading abilities. ^⑦ Then they asked them to read books that were not easy for them. Each child read aloud. ^⑧ After they finished the first page, scientists asked them if they would like to read more or just stop there. They found that children spent more time reading and showed more interest when a dog was in the room. ^⑨ Dogs can help children feel more confident. ^⑩ Scientists said dogs are good listeners. They won't mind whether children make mistakes. They won't stop children, either. In recent years, dogs have taken part in reading activities in schools and labs. This study helps us understand how dogs help children learn to read better.

On my parent's birthday

August 8th is a special day for all of my family because it's my mother's birthday.

What still impressed me most was my celebrating my mother's birthday last month. Before the birthday, I bought a nice cake and some delicious food to prepare for a big meal. Then I wrote some words in a card, "Thank you, my mom. It is you who give me new life and bring me up. It is you who teach me much knowledge that I can't learn from books. It is you who cook delicious meals and wait for me to have them after school." and put it under her pillow. Finally, she saw it and hugged me tightly, moving a lot.

What an unforgettable day for me and my family!

⑥ When you feel a little sleepy after lunch, don't look for a coffee. Instead, take a nap. There are many advantages of a daily nap. ⑦ You can remember things better and make fewer mistakes. You can learn things more easily after taking a nap. But there are some simple rules you should follow about taking a nap. Firstly, take a nap in the middle of the day about eight hours after you wake up. ⑧ Next, a 20-30-minute nap is best. If you sleep for longer, you will fall into a deep sleep. And when you wake up, you will feel tired and get angry easily. ⑨ You should also set an alarm clock. That way you can fully relax during your nap. You won't have to keep looking at the clock. In case you don't oversleep. Now the next time you feel sleepy after lunch, don't get dressed, put your head down, close your eyes and take a nap.

My hometown

My hometown is a beautiful place. It stands beside a wide river and is rich in fish and rice. But in the old days, it was a poor and backward little town. Many people had no work.

They lived a hard life. In 1949, my hometown was liberated. Since then great changes have taken place there. The streets have been widened. Factories, schools, hospitals, cinemas and theaters have been set up one after another. The life of the people is greatly improved. I love my hometown and all the people there. They are working hard so as to make it still richer and more beautiful.
